Collection and use

This form collects each applicant's and insured person's personal and health information. nib will use the information it collects to:

- determine each applicant's and insured person's eligibility for the policies and options applied for, and
- administer the policies, and
- promote and/or market our current and future health and related services and health related products of nib's business partners, and
- consider claims and provide the benefits and health related services under the policies.

Insurance law requires each applicant and insured person to comply with his or her duty of disclosure to nib when applying for insurance. To the extent nib collects personal and health information under that duty, the supply of it to nib is mandatory. If any applicant or insured person fails to provide information required by the duty of disclosure, nib may decline the application or, if nib has issued a policy, it may have the right to cancel the policy retrospectively.

Intended recipients

In providing our health and related services and using personal information, we may collect information from or disclose personal information to:

- nib and its related companies and business partners, and

- all other co-applicants named in this application and all insured persons, and
- any applicant's insurance adviser or other individual who a person has granted authority to access information on their behalf, and
- at claim time:
  - all necessary health service providers
  - any of nib's contractors or service providers assisting it with administering and meeting each applicant's and insured person's claim

Each applicant and insured person authorises the collection of information from and the disclosure of information to the intended recipients named for the purposes set out above.

Access and correction

The accuracy of personal information is important to us. We will take reasonable steps to ensure a person's information is accurate, complete and up-to-date. We rely on the applicant and/or insured person to advise of any changes to their contact details and any other personal information. Each applicant and insured person has the right to access and correct their personal and health information held by nib. nib nz limited, 48 Shortland Street, Auckland collects and holds the personal and health information.

Specific conditions relating to notices and disputes

I may ask my bank to reverse a direct debit up to 120 calendar days after the debit if:

- I don't receive a written notice of the amount and date of each direct debit from the initiator, or
• I receive a written notice but the amount or the date of debiting is different from the amount or the date specified on the notice.

The initiator is required to give a written notice of the amount and date of each direct debit in a series of direct debits no later than the date of the first direct debit in the series. The notice is to include:

- the dates of the debits, and
• the amount of each direct debit.

If the bank dishonours a direct debit but the initiator sends the direct debit again within 5 business days of the dishonour, the initiator is not required to give you a second notice of the amount and date of the direct debit.

If the initiator proposes to change an amount or date of a direct debit specified in the notice, the initiator is required to give you notice:

- no less than 30 calendar days before the change, or
• if the initiator's bank agrees, no less than 10 calendar days before the change.
